DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Applicant's election without traverse of claims 1-26 in the reply filed on 18 August 2006 is acknowledged.

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 1-26 are rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 19-30 of U.S. Patent No. 7,105,779.

Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the claims are merely an obvious variation of the patented claims.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

Art Unit: 1761

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claim 17 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

There is no clear antecedent basis for the "cover" recited at line 1.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-3, 5-15 and 21-26 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Arnold et al.

There is disclosed in Arnold a food warming apparatus, comprising: a cabinet 10 having a plurality of food holding compartments 14a-d, the compartments being separated by a partition, each compartment having a bottom wall 24, a top wall 22 and opposite side walls; a heat source (col. 4, lines 53, 54) adjacent the bottom wall of the compartments, the heat source including a metal plate 18b; a control mechanism 36 preprogrammed for controlling the heat source, the control including a user input device, a user display device 26a-d, and a sensor 22a-d; and a pan 16 for placement within each compartment, the pan including a cover.

In regards to the use of the heat source at various heating levels, there is disclosed in Arnold that the heat source has various intensity levels. In regards to the use of a time-based cycle for operating the heating source, it is disclosed in Arnold that each programmed heating sequence has a maximum time limit. It should be noted that operation of the heat source and other elements of the invention by the controller amount to nothing more than a desired operation of the device. Such an operation function of the device is not structurally limiting and receives no patentable weight in an apparatus claim.

In regards to the use of the device to heat buns, such is intentional use only and provides no structural limitations to the claims.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 16 and 17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Arnold et al. in view of Fortmann et al.

Fortmann discloses the use of a floating cover member secured within an oven compartment for receiving a pan.

It would have been obvious to one skilled in the art to provide the device of Arnold with the floating cover taught in Fortmann, in order to help seal the heating pan.

Claims 4 and 18-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Arnold et al. in view of Shei et al.

Shei discloses a warming oven including a plurality of side-by-side compartments for receiving a pan, the compartment upper wall not being heated.

It would have been obvious to one skilled in the art to include a vertical partition to the compartments of Arnold as taught by Shei, in order to allow for an alternative arrangement of heating compartments.

It would have been obvious to one skilled in the art to modify the heating arrangement of Arnold with that taught by Shei and provide only a heating of the bottom wall of the compartments, for the purpose of eliminating the need for additional upper heaters and thus saving cost on manufacture.
